

An AdapTable Bench can be a table with bench seat for a classroom or multipurpose room.

An AdapTable Bench can be a comfortable bench with backrest in auditorium configurations.

AdapTable Benches can be arranged as tables plus benches with backrests for group testing and activities.

BioFit AdapTable

Convertible Bench/Table System

AdapTable Bench units can function as cafeteria tables with attached benches on either or both sides.

For storage, BioFit AdapTable Benches fold easily into a compact position.

The BioFit AdapTable

BioFit's AdapTable Bench folds quickly and moves easily. Table tops and seats fold into an easy-rolling unit.

Folded table/bench units nest compactly for storage.

Engineered for Flexibility, Stability and Cleanliness

AdapTable Benches from BioFit are an ideal table and/or bench for heavy-duty applications such as schools. These AdapTable Bench units are flexible, convenient, sturdy and clean. And they're multipurpose – giving you great value for your dollar as they treat your budget kindly.

Optional magnetic fasteners allow units to be ganged to function as tables.

Magnetic fasteners make aligning and fastening two units together very easy and instantaneous.

BIOFIT
BIOFIT ENGINEERED PRODUCTS

Unit is standard with four non-marring heavy-duty casters, two rolling and two locking, that keep the unit firmly in place. Four locking casters are an added-cost option.

The solid foundation, steel legs and caster configuration are engineered to keep the unit strong and stable, less likely to tip than competitors'.

The Lotz Armor Edge® on table and bench surfaces is strong, tight and sanitary, with no cracks or seams to trap food or bacteria. No holes or fasteners penetrate top surfaces of benches, eliminating traps for bacteria growth.
